Pernštýnská 116

533 41 Lázně Bohdaneč

E-mail: sale@rmi.cz

Tel: +420 466 921 885

ID: 25288083

DIC: CZ25288083

(hereinafter referred to as "provider")

Enquirer:

For the purposes of these Terms and Conditions, the enquirer is any legal entity or natural person who submits an enquiry through the SparSpec enquiry system.

(hereinafter referred to as "the enquirer")

2. Service description

The SparSpec service enables the promotion of goods and serves the enquirer to easily and efficiently place requests for consumables and spare parts for spectrometry and SPM, AFM (scanning probe microscopy). Goods placed in the basket are then sent for a non-binding price quotation. You can add your questions when sending your inquiry. The name and main characteristics of the goods are given for the specific product.

Terms and conditions for placing an enquiry:

- In order to place an inquiry, registration of the inquirer is required. Contact details must be filled in properly and truthfully. It is not necessary to re-enter the contact details when creating a new enquiry.
- The enquiry service must not be misused for market monitoring and other negative purposes.
- Demand must not be misused to promote your own goods and services.

The provider of the offer has the right to contact the enquirer to complete the information and contact details. Submitting an enquiry in the systems is free of charge. The Provider reserves the right to delete an enquiry from the system if the enquirer's conduct is in breach of these terms and conditions, good morals and the terms and conditions for placing an enquiry.

The enquirer may request the offer provider to terminate, amend or supplement the enquiry via the contact form or the contacts listed above.

3. Other conditions

Photographs featured on the SparSpec website are subject to copyright and may not be distributed without prior permission.

4. Personal data protection

The service provider collects the personal data of the enquirer via a secure website, in particular the name and surname, contact details, address or company name. The above data is used to create a comprehensive quotation. The stored personal data may be changed by the enquirer at any time.

More information on the processing of personal data can be found here.

5. Final provisions

The operator does not guarantee the continuous functionality of the system and error-free operation. By registering, the enquirer unconditionally agrees to these terms and conditions. Other relationships and requirements must not be in conflict with generally applicable laws and related regulations. RMI, s.r.o. reserves the right to change the Terms and Conditions.

These terms and conditions are valid and effective from 2 January 2023.
